PENDENNIS CLUB

Incorporated November 6, 1882

The undersigned do hereby form themselves, their associates, and successors, into a corporation for purposes of social pleasure, and adopt the following articles of incorporation:

I.

The name of the corporation shall be the "Pendennis Club," and its location Louisville, Jefferson County, Kentucky.

II.

The amount of capital stock shall be one hundred thousand dollars, divided into two thousand shares of fifty dollars each. A person becoming a member of the Club, and no other, shall be entitled to one share of stock, which shall be paid by his initiation fee; said stock shall not be transferable by act of the party or by operation of law, and shall revert absolutely to the Club on such person ceasing to be a member, whether by death or resignation, expulsion or otherwise. No person shall hold more than one share of stock, nor be entitled to record more than one vote.

III.

The members of the Club shall be:

1. Those now members of the voluntary organization known as the "Pendennis Club," whose stock shall be paid by the transfer of the assets of that organization to this corporation.

2. Such other persons as may be elected in the manner prescribed by the By-Laws and sign the Constitution and pay the requisite initiation fee.

No person shall hereafter be eligible as a member unless twenty-three years of age and of moral character.

The initiation fee shall not be less than fifty dollars, and monthly dues shall not exceed five dollars.

IV.

At a meeting of the Club to be held Monday, November 6, 1882, the members present shall elect, by a majority vote, a President, Vice-President, Secretary, Treasurer (which last two offices may be united), and seven Directors, and such Officers and Directors shall compose the Board of Directors. The Officers shall be elected for one year, four of the Directors for two years, and three for one year. Thereafter, at the annual meeting to be held on the first Monday in November, the Officers and Directors to fill the place of those whose terms have expired shall be elected by a majority vote, the term of the Officers to be one year and that of the Directors two years.

V.

The Board of Directors shall be the governing body of the Club; shall have power to fill vacancies of Officers or Directors for the unexpired term, and to make and enforce all necessary rules and regulations, including the fixing and enforcing of fines, penalties, forfeitures, and expulsions, but it shall provide for an appeal to the Club on the part of any member whom it may decide to expel, and its decision on such questions shall be subject to a reversal by a majority vote of the members present at the meeting which considers it.

VI.

A notice posted by the Secretary in a conspicuous place in the Club for ten days, designating the time, place, and object of a meeting, shall be a valid call therefor.

2. Section 9 is amended as follows:

sent in writing to be their several acts and deeds

ing the outstanding obligations of the said old Clubs as now assumed, or to be assumed, by this Club, and devising and recommending to the Board of Directors the ways and means of raising the necessary funds for the improvement of the old building or the erection of a new building, and in general advising with the Board and recommending the plans for the handling of the finances of the new Club, the liquidation of the obligation assumed and the raising of money.

B. The Secretary shall keep a list of the nominees for resident membership in the order of their nomination; and the Board of Directors shall consider nominations according to that order.

C. No person elected a resident member shall be permitted to qualify as such unless and until the resident membership is less than 775.

The names of those elected to resident membership shall be placed in the order of their election upon a waiting list and they shall be notified, in such order, to qualify when and as vacancies occur.

D. Whenever a non-resident member becomes eligible to resident membership, he shall so notify the Board of Directors.

Non-resident membership shall give in right to resident membership.

A former non-resident member, desiring to become a resident member, shall be nominated in the same manner as if it were an original nomination.

The Board of Directors shall consider the nomination as an original nomination and shall act upon it accordingly.

When such a nominee is elected, he shall be transferred from non-resident membership to resident membership and shall be permitted to qualify at once, although the resident membership be full, but no person, other than one so transferred shall be permitted to qualify unless and until the resident membership is less than 775.

Any member, once elected to resident membership, who has been transferred to non-resident membership and who again became eligible to resident membership, may, upon his application to the Board of Directors, be, in the discretion of the Board, transferred to that class.

E. The Board of Directors may act upon any nomination, or, if it be deemed advisable, may refer any nomination to the Secret Membership Committee.

The Board shall not be bound by the report of the Committee. If the report be adverse to the nominee, the Board may, if it be deemed advisable, call upon the Committee for a statement of the facts upon which such a report is based.

F. No person shall be eligible as a member unless twenty-one years of age and of good moral character.

Election of members shall be after nomination in writing by one member, endorsed by two others, posted on the bulletin board of the Club for ten days. During said period every member shall have the right to place in a box, provided for that purpose, his personally signed endorsement, or objection, or criticism of the proposed member and at the expiration of the ten-day period the Secretary shall open the box and preserve, until final action upon such name, the information so obtained.

The Secretary shall thereupon call a meeting of the Secret Membership Committee and present the name of the proposed member, or members, together with such information as he has been able to obtain, including that deposited in the box, and the Secret Committee shall thereupon, after such investigation as it may deem proper, make its report and submit its recommendations to the Board of Directors of the Club, and thereafter the Board of Directors shall act upon the nomination of the proposed member by either declaring him elected or rejected. The adverse vote of two Directors shall result in the rejection of the nominee. The action of the Board of Directors upon the proposed member shall not be recorded upon its minutes, but the original nomination card shall be preserved by the Secretary and no member shall be ballotted upon twice within any one year if rejected in any form.

Members elected must pay their initiation fee within one month after the date of their election and notice, otherwise their election shall be forfeited.

VIII.

VISITORS.

Any person residing more than twenty-five miles from the Club House may be invited by a member to the use of the Club for a period of fifteen days. This invitation may be renewed once, but not oftener, until an absence of three months shall intervene. A card of invitation designating the period shall be given the guest, and his name and that of the member inviting him shall be recorded, and the host shall be responsible for the guest.

The House Committee may revoke any invitation. The Board of Directors may, by unanimous vote of those present, extend to any officer of the regular Army, Navy or Marine Corps of the United States the privileges of the Club for six mont^ls upon payment of regular monthly dues. The Board may also, by vote, extend the privileges of the Club to the resident clergy. No member shall extend the privileges of the Club to more than two visitors at any one time, without permission from the Chairman of the House Committee.

Persons residing within twenty-five miles of the Club House may be introduced into the Club when accompanied by and as the guest of the introducing member; but not oftener than once in a calendar month by the same member.

IX.

INITIATION FEES AND DUES.

The initiation fee of members thirty years of age and over shall be two hundred dollars and of members under thirty years of age one hundred dollars.

The dues of members, until changed pursuant to the By-Laws, shall be payable quarterly in advance on the first days of January, April, July and October, in each year, at the rate of eighty dollars per year for members thirty years of age and over and at the rate of sixty dollars per year for members under thirty years of age.

New members shall pay dues at the same rate for each unexpired month and fractional part of a month in the current quarter.

On application to the Board of Directors a member may have one-half his dues remitted during his absence from the State, if such absence shall be for six months continuously.

Members elected by the Board and residing more than twenty-five miles from the Club House shall pay fifty dollars initiation fees and twenty dollars annual dues.

Whenever a non-resident member shall cease to belong to that class by actually residing or spending the principal part of his time, or by having a place of business within twenty-five miles of Louisville, he shall thenceforth be classed as a resident member and shall thereafter pay full annual dues.

Every non-resident member who shall become a resident member shall pay an amount equal to the difference between the present non-resident initiation fee, and the regular membership initiation fee, except that if a non-resident member paid a greater amount than the present non-resident initiation fee, the added amount shall be the difference between the said original initiation fee, and the present resident initiation fee.

X.

PAYMENT OF ACCOUNTS.

Members' accounts are due on the first of each month for all indebtedness incurred in the previous month. Accounts must be paid on or before the close of the month succeeding that in which the indebtedness is incurred. Names of members whose accounts are not so paid will be placed on the bulletin board of the Club on the first of each month and remain fifteen days, or until the account is paid. Upon all indebtedness not paid prior to the fifteenth day of the second month succeeding the month in which said indebtedness was incurred, there shall be added a penalty of three per cent. upon the amount thereof, if thirty-five dollars or over, and one dollar if under such amount, and an additional penalty of two per cent. shall be added upon the fifteenth day of each succeeding month that such indebtedness remains unpaid.

Any member posted for non-payment of his accounts shall not receive further credit until his account is paid, and when posted for fifteen days shall be subject to suspension or expulsion at the option of the Board. Notice of this suspension of credit shall be sent him by the Treasurer.

No member's account shall exceed two hundred dollars.

Any member whose name is posted for indebtedness, as provided herein, and who shall fail to pay such indebtedness within one month from date of posting, shall ipso facto be suspended from all the privileges of the Club until said indebtedness shall be paid; but this shall not be construed to limit the power of the Board to suspend or expel as above provided.

XI.

EXPULSION OR SUSPENSION OF MEMBERS.

The penalty of expulsion shall not be inflicted except upon a two-thirds vote of the entire Board of Directors, or the penalty of suspension inflicted except upon a majority vote of the members present at the meeting of the Board.

Any member expelled shall have the right, within two weeks after notice of the action of the Board has been sent him, to require the Secretary to call a general meeting of the Club to consider the matter. At such general meeting a majority vote shall decide whether the judgment of the Board be affirmed, modified or reversed.

XII.
